COMMENTS FROM THE OFFICE OF THE TOWN MANAGER

We have been informed there is to be at least one write-in candidate for public office at next Monday's town meeting. As this is a common procedure here in Bethel, we hope a voter who wishes to cast a ballot for such a candidate will be very careful to do this correctly.

This manner of voting is not difficult and may be done by merely writing the name of the person for whom the voter wishes to vote and placing an X or V mark after it. Caution must be used to write the name plainly and not use any title before or after the name. The State law is very specific in the use of a title. If one is used it will invalidate the vote.

Citizens should note the evening portion of town meeting will be held at Telstar Regional High School Auditorium. Odeon Hall is not heated now that its use is limited.

Several have asked as to the purpose of the article in the town warrant pertaining to the $2,000 gift from Gould Academy. We were advised we should have this article even though there is no designation as to how these funds will be expended.

Extensive remodeling is believed to be planned for the corner building purchased from Stuart Martin of Rumford. Mr. Willard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Jay Willard of Bethel.

TO SEEK NEWRY POST — Mrs. Julie Daye of Sunday River who will seek election to the office of Selectman at the Newry town meeting in Monday, March 2. She and her husband, Edward, are the owners of Sunday River Inn.

Mrs. Lois Tenney and family of Standish are spending this week visiting Mrs. Jane Van.

The Afternoon Circle of the WSCS will meet Thursday, Feb. 26, at the home of Mrs. Rita Dunn.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cole visited Mr. and Mrs. Mylon Turner and Mrs. Leona Curtis in Skowhegan on the week end.

AN APOLOGY
Lack of space has resulted in several articles being omitted from this issue of The Citizen. Every attempt will be made to publish them next week.

Junior Girl Scouts Troop 674 urges all citizens to be sure to VOTE on town meeting day.

GOULD TO MEET BUCKFIELD IN WESTERN MAINE

Gould Academy had little trouble in disposing of Rangeley High School 38-34 in Western Maine Class "S" journey play at the Edward Little High School gymnasium in Auburn last Saturday morning. Five of the Huskies were in double figures with Captain Wayne Davis, 21, and Dan Vogt, 20, leading the way. It was the 6-6 Robert ("The Animal") Fairburn that posed the big problem for Rangeley, however. At 240 pounds, Fairburn was an immense rebounding factor for which Rangeley could find no answer.

Mike DeRaps led the Lakers' scoring with 11 points with Bob Ellis collecting nine.

Gould was the tourney's top seed with 12 wins and only one loss. Rangeley ended with three wins and eight losses.

As a result of the win, Gould will meet Buckfield High School, a 47-46 victor over Forest Hills of Jackman in the other Class "S" semi-final, for the sectional title at 1:15 p. m. Saturday, Feb. 28, at Edward Little High School, Auburn.

DISTRICT 44 ELEMENTARY SPELL DOWN AT TELSTAR NEXT WEDNESDAY

Wednesday afternoon, March 5, at 1:30, will be the day that M. S. A. D. 44 school champions will have their spell down. Schools winners were Sharon Cayer, Andover, grade 6; Marcia Mills, Crescent Park School, grade 6; John Learned, R. C. Foster School, grade 6; Irene Howe, Woodstock Elementary School, grade 6. Grade 7-8 champions from Telstar Regional High School have not been chosen.

Miss Helen Varner will be co-nominator. Judges for the run-off will be: James L. Johnston, Allen W. Messer, Robert Hamor, and Keith Cunningham.

The public is invited to attend the spell down, which will be held in the Telstar Regional High School Auditorium.

PINE TREE COUNCIL SUSTAINING MEMBERSHIP ENROLLMENT DUE IN MARCH

The annual membership enrollment for the support of the Pine tree place in the Bethel area in March.

The Boy Scout program is supported mainly by voluntary contributors from organizations, business and industry, who believe in it.

Some 30 or 40 enrollers will be needed to help in the local effort. The funds to be raised provide for the expenses of the Council and Districts. The Rangeley District is one of some 16 districts in the Council. This district serves about 35 towns in this area, and some 50 Cub Packs, Scout Troops and Explorer units.

It may be noted that the local Pack or Troop expenses are taken care of by members dues and local events, for example, a public supper, put on by committee people and the boys. This is done to encourage thrifty self-support and service to the community.

GOULD DEFEATS KENTS HILL, 63-51, TUESDAY

Gould Academy put on a strong push in the second quarter and again in the fourth to outdistance Kents Hill 63-51 in basketball Tuesday at Bethel. The Bethel club was five down at the first period but picked up 17-12, 10-8 and 25-14 margins in the next three.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ryder were in Boston over the week end. Allan and Kathy stayed at Mr. and Mrs. Roger Spugnardi's.

BELIVEAU TO ADDRESS BETHEL DEMOCRATS TONIGHT

Attorney Michael J. O'Donnell, Democrat, Town Chairman of Bethel, extends a special invitation to new residents of Bethel to attend the Bethel Democratic caucus to be held this Thursday evening at 7:30, in the Casco Bank Meeting Room.

"This is the year people in Maine should be involved in political decisions at all levels," O'Donnell stated. "Important things are happening here in Maine and each one of us has a duty to make our views known. It serves no purpose to complain about decisions which were made at a time when we could have but chose not to participate."

State Democratic Chairman Severin Beliveau is slated to address the local caucus. He is expected to comment on the recently adjourned special legislative session as well as state-wide Democratic activities.

ANNUAL ELECTION AND TOWN MEETING IN BETHEL TO BE HELD NEXT MONDAY

Bethel's annual municipal election and town meeting are scheduled for next Monday, March 2. Polls will open at 10 a. m. for balloting on elected officials at the Fire Station, and close at 6 p. m. The meeting will reconvene at 8 o'clock Monday evening at Telstar Regional High School Auditorium for action on the remaining warrant articles.

Local voters will cast ballots in daytime voting for one selectman/assessor, two school directors, town clerk and fire ward.

Four candidates are vying for the one selectman/assessor opening contested this year. Seeking the position are John T. (Ted) Grover, Walter G. Osgood, Charles P. (Phil) Taylor, and Samuel Timberlake.

TAXPAYERS' SURVEY TO ASK OPINIONS/DESIRES/GOALS OF DISTRICT 44 SCHOOL SYSTEM

A survey will be conducted by the Board of Directors of S. A. D. 44 to determine opinions, desires and goals of taxpayers in the District as they relate to the school system. Two means will be used to reach every possible taxpayer. On March 2 principals in S. A. D. 44 will distribute to school children questionnaires which are to be completed by each family. For taxpayers who would not be receiving copies through the schools, questionnaires will be available in each principal's office, where they may be picked up. Copies for residents of Newry will be available at the Newry post office, and copies for residents of the Town of Greenwood will be available at the Locke Mills post office.

It is requested that completed questionnaires be returned to the principals' offices no later than March 6. No one will be identified, as there is no name or other identification on the questionnaire, and it is hoped that as many taxpayers as possible will complete and return the form by March 6. Results of the survey will be published in the paper at a later date.

Christian Science
The Lesson Service to be read in all Christian Science Churches this Sunday on the subject of "Christ Jesus" begins with a Golden Text from Luke: "The Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost."

One of the passages from "Behold and Hear" with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, explains the Christian Science interpretation of the Bible, "Jesus the Christ," as follows: Jesus is the voice of the man who more than all other men has presented Christ, the true idea of God, leading the soul and the thinking and destroying the power of death. Jesus is the human man, and Christ is the divine idea, inside the thinking of Jesus the Christ.

The public is welcome to attend services at 11 a. m. at First Church of Christ Science, Main and Youth Sts., Berlin 19 11.

The Christian Science Radio Series "The Bible Speaks to You" is broadcast each Sunday over Station

We who are dog lovers are very sorry for Frances Grant in the loss of her pet dog, who suddenly disappeared. She was a most friendly and pretty little black and white dog named Lady. She had been shot in the face once a short time ago and Mrs. Grant picked her up with her face all blood, and badly scratched up, from some person, who evidently doesn't care for animals. A reward has been offered for the dog found dead or alive and I do hope it is found and the one who did it brought to justice.

30 SECONDS WITH THE NAZARENE

"The Lord Will Work It Out"

When trials come your way
And faith has turned to doubt,
Don't bow your head in shame,
The Lord will work it out.

When your cross seems heavy,
You're burdened down with care,
Take your load to Jesus,
Let Him your burden share.

Through tears and mental anguish
When your heart may have to doubt,
Just rest upon His promises,
That the Lord will work it out.

"Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding."
"In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor of the Bethel Citizen:

We look forward to our copy of the Bethel Citizen each week. We especially enjoy the wonderful descriptions of nature by Mrs. Collista Morgan of Greenwood City. We had quite a discussion on what a strew was, actually a few thought it was a small bird. Mrs. Morgan describes many birds and animals I've never seen, and a few I've never heard of.

We miss Maude Brown's column from Milton. We hope she is better and may resume writing soon.

Cedric and Jennie Judkins, during our summer vacations we always stopped to buy some peas or some strawberries and we would chat for awhile.

Congratulations to Mrs. Arline Bernier for her news reports of Upton. We enjoy them very much.

My dentist is a distant relative of the Thrustons of Bethel and once in a while he reads a copy of the paper and he enjoys it, too.

A fellow employee of mine, Ernest Bartlett, has relatives in East Bethel and we enjoy discussing the Bethel Citizen news.

Sincerely,

Harry C. Marsh

P. S. We read in the news that Mr. and Mrs. Howard Douglas are in Florida. After last year's wonderful snow, I hope they're not too lonesome for Upton.

To all residents of S. A. D. #44:

Who is to Blame???

I have listened to many complaints relative to the school expenditures, and the over-all picture of management of our schools and it upsets me to no end.

A few years ago much was said about the education our children were receiving at Gould Academy and many were all kindled to have a "Telstar". The building and staff were to be of the highest quality. The programming was to be extensive.

During these formative years, Gilead residents stood firm in opposition. We argued that all the luxuries didn't necessarily mean betterment of education. Had we wanted luxurious advantages, we would have erected and maintained a similar building in our town. Being conservative, we maintained a school with little or no "lace". As a result of our thinking, thought and words came to us from all sources.

Quite recently, however, I was most pleased by being stopped on the sidewalk and told that "a few years ago I thought you people in Gilead were s.o.b.'s for not joining S. A. D. #44. Now we all wish we lived in Gilead. Where can I buy a house lot up there?" That was music to my ears, believe me!

But, who is to blame? You voted in people to represent you and run your affairs. They usually voice their stand before election and, therefore, you supported Directors who were for modern advancement. You approved of their doctrine of hiring only staff members with degrees (who demand high salaries). You approved of a compound of rooms and the best of equipment, therein. You visited "Telstar" and had sparkle in your eyes with what you saw. But, now you cry. Who is to blame?

There is one very much over-used statement which greatly upsets me. That is, "The Superintendent's budget is extreme". Please, do not use the word "superintendent". It is the Directors' Budget. Your superintendent is the hub of the wheel. He can call for all the "Grease in the Can" but unless it is supplied by the Directors, he goes dry. His position is to carry out the demands of the Directors. If the Directors vote to expend monies on wall-to-wall carpeting, gold-framed windows, or furnished "rest areas", it is his position to see that the demands are carried out. It is sheer ignorance to blame him for your budget. Put the blame where it belongs—on the Directors.

If you have elected Directors who believe in luxuries, extreme mod programming, etc., and you do not approve, there is but one way to correct it. Go to your Town Meetings and vote. You can't change a thing over a cup of coffee in your own living room. It is the worst place in the world to run governmental affairs. If you have Directors who are influenced by a few and won't stand on their feet, your vote is what changes all that.

Once again, WHO IS TO BLAME? You, the voter! You elected the Directors or even worse, you never went to a meeting and voted at all!

Sincerely,

C. A. Mason
P. S. As a side note: Don't think we are riding free. This year we are paying $926.00 for each high school student going to "Telstar". Ask your Director what your cost is? Hope he can tell you!

To the Editor:

As a resident and taxpayer in Bethel I am interested in our schools and our taxes. At this time I would like to submit my name, Jim Hudson, as a write-in candidate for school board member. I feel that a school board member is a representative of those people who elect him to the position. I also feel any representative must state certain basic principles in order that voters may choose a candidate whose thinking is most like their own.

First I support Mr. Cunningham's and Mr. Flynn's "back to reality" philosophy.

Secondly, I shall answer Ted Chadbourne's three-fold question which I feel was sincere and well justified. This question is the one asked the candidates at the last Chamber of Commerce meeting.

1. I voted against the proposed school budget. I simply feel it is more than we can afford.

2. I feel teachers' salaries should be close to average. I also think teachers should be paid on a merit basis. I realize some teachers are underpaid and some are overpaid. Most of us get paid for what we do or the results we get. In spite of the teachers' union we should pay according to the individual's ability.

3. As for non-educational and extra-curricular activities, these should be self-supporting. Adult education, hot lunch program and student activities are all vital to our community but all secondary to the basic educational foundation we are trying to give our children.

In our merry-go-round economy, here and throughout the country the question has been "what do we want?" not "what can we afford?" It appears that finally budgets and spending are beginning to level off. Let's take that second look and get what we pay for and pay for what we get.

Vote for any candidate you know thanks the way you do.

Jim Hudson

A Second Letter to the Silent Majority

There are two schools of thought on the election of public officials and their subsequent services to the community. One feeling is that the voters should select a person they have faith in and let him do the job. The other, and this I agree with, is that the voters select a person they have faith in, but then instead of just turning him loose on the job, they should discuss things with him occasionally to give their opinions on the issues involved. Our people in Augusta and Wash-ton ask for this, and seek out advice and thoughts at the grass roots. The same should hold true with town or district positions.

This difference of opinion is not new. Back in the days when this democracy was born, there were many prominent people, Alexander Hamilton for one, who felt that only the rich, educated elite group should have the right to hold office, and also only they should have the right to vote! There are many historians who feel that we could not have survived and grown as we did if this aristocracy had held all the power.

Bearing this in mind, you will agree then, that one important attribute of a candidate is his ability and willingness to communicate with the "man on the street".

Bethel is indeed fortunate to have four good candidates running for two vacancies. Several other towns have not exhibited such spirit. Of the four, there are two that, in addition to their other qualities, do strike me as the type that can listen and talk to the public, separate the chaff from the wheat, form wise decisions and then—most importantly—vote their convictions.

John Brown is well known to all as editor of the Bethel Citizen, and selectman. What might not be commonly known, is that he is a wizard at calculating, researching, and understanding the intricacies of municipal finance. He is a good listener and is available.

Clarence Remington is the father of four grown boys who he raised in the fine old tradition of firm paternal attention and they are an asset to the community. Clarence enjoys working with young people, and he spends many hours at Telstar—on a voluntary basis, assisting the coaches. He is able to talk in language we all understand, and a visit to his home—which he constructed himself—is richly rewarding. We should envy and admire someone who has done a good job raising a family today. Here is proof that it is not necessarily the number of degrees a man has that is important, but rather his ability to communicate with his family and others.

Both Clarence and John would make good school directors for S. A. D. #44. They will get my vote and, I hope, they will get yours.

Donald A. Stecher,
Bethel, Maine

To the Editor:

As a candidate for the Board of Directors of S. A. D. #44, I wish to express my appreciation to the many people who have so far shown their concern in having me elected to this position.

I will not endeavor to compete with those who have served a number of years, for I do not have such experience behind me, but I do understand the position of working men and women in this district.

As a pastor, my life is devoted to serving people. Our Lord said, "I came not to be ministered unto, but to minister." In addition to pastoring, I have been working part time as a carpenter. I know some of the problems of raising a family. My good wife and I have five children, two of which are at Telstar. I sympathize with those who have the great responsibility of rearing a family in these troubled days. I have accepted this challenge, along with the new challenge of representing "the people" as best I know as school board director.

I want to see our young people get the best education we can give them. My desire is to see that the people, the taxpayers, receive that for which they are paying.

I would appreciate your vote on March 2.

Sincerely,

Rev. Richard L. Parker

To the Editor:

It is difficult to know whether to respond to letters which appear to be dishonest or misleading. If only I had been attacked, I would not have replied. But I will not be used as a pawn in one's attempt to discredit another. It was cleverly implied, but not stated, that I gave Mr. Stowell the question before asking it of the Bethel School Board candidates. I did not. (One would hope that if I had planned in advance to ask something I could have stated it more concisely.)

It was also said that I forced the candidates to answer in a certain sequence. The question was directed to the candidates from left to right as they sat at the head of the room, the reverse order from which they had answered the previous question. If the men were to learn from each other's answers, at least the advantage was rotated.

It was said that only a person on the School Board could be expected to know the answers. None of these men are on the School Board. Dexter Stowell is a former member (whose fiscal conservatism has been greatly missed, as you have noticed). Although it is true that he did an excellent job of answering the question, so did John Brown, who has never been on the Board. I put these four men on the spot about how they would spend your money. Nine out of ten voters would gladly tell you right where they stood on these questions.

Finally, it was said that how a candidate is going to vote on a budget is his own personal business, I disagree. These men seek to represent you and you must know where they stand.

CELEBRATES 50th BIRTHDAY

Harry Swift quietly celebrated his 50th birthday Sunday at his home on Bird Hill Road, Locke Mills. Present were his daughters and husbands, Mr. and Mrs. George Blden, Carthage, and Mr. and Mrs. George Stowell, Jr., and Rebecca, West Bethel. Another daughter, Mrs. Henry Bowers, was unable to be present. The celebration featured a birthday cake made by Mrs. Blden.

We all want to stem the fast rate at which school costs are rising. Many of us also want to see some programs cut back or put on a self supporting basis. The question is which candidates can do this most effectively?

I am convinced that neither John Brown nor Dexter Stowell would have put everything in the 1969 and 1970 budgets had they been there at the right time. If the other two candidates know how they can save you money, they passed up a good chance to say so.

Since I am not a candidate for re-election after many years on the School Board, I would like to leave you with this thought:

Your School Directors are entrusted with the quality of education and also with the efficiency of the school operation. If you feel there are more than two candidates who are capable of getting a better rein on these costs, perhaps the question now comes back to the primary function. Which two men are most capable of seeing that we do not lose sight of a sound education while concentrating on efficiency?

GREENWOOD CITY

Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres. — At 1:30 on Thursday I stepped on my snowshoes for my third hike this week.

Alone I set out—a vagabond again!

"I am prey to woods and fields, sunny hills and streams. I've a soul which likes to drift and tease with dreams."

Edgar A. Guest

The wind prowled down pond as I faced north west directly toward Overst Mountain. I walked through the bog land and heard the ice crackle under my feet where it had formed after the rains.

The sky was a dazzling blue with but two clouds, one a huge doughnut with fluffy white frosting and the other just a speck where a bit of the frosting had dripped.

The little woodland creatures had been, and no doubt were there listening and lurking somewhere beneath a shelter, the rabbits ever alert and mice with tiny eyes aglow.

I emerged into an open field and went to visit the old tamarack I had so often seen in summer. How different it looked standing there with its pyramidal head so high minus its coat of summer green or fall yellow. When last I came to visit it there was a mist from the river as white as the snow now beneath, and so thin it rippled as the sun came through it.

Here a mysterious trail attracted my attention and I followed it to the edge of the forest. Then I left to enter the woods because the trail led again to the pond and I wasn't ready to return yet.

Stopping I was among a variety of trees. They were bursting with the sun's brilliance making the cloth of children have been spending the past two weeks visiting with her family in California.

Mrs. Arthur (Olive) Whitten is a patient at the Oostepathic Hospital in Portland.

Kenneth Jodrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Jodrey, has been discharged from the armed forces and has arrived at the home of his parents. His last tour of duty was in Viet Nam.

Mrs. Keith Wilson and family, Salem, Mass., spent this week visiting with relatives in Andover and Bethel.

The Congregational Youth Club will meet each Friday at the C. E. B. from 7 to 8. The choir will meet Thursdays (instead of Wednesdays) at 7 p. m.

Mrs. Donald Vilefield and Lisa have returned from a trip to Bangor visiting with relatives.

Mrs. Linwood Tucker entered the Community Hospital on Feb. 23 for x-rays. She has been ill for the past several weeks with a severe cold.

A Republican Caucus will be held on Monday, March 2, at 7:00 p. m. at the Christian Education Building to elect delegates to the state, county and town committees.

snow flashing jets of light. Breathless silence was every where as I noted how the snows band and trim the trees each winter. Winds do their part whispering and cooing or roaring like the ocean; producing beauty and harmony over all.

There stood an age old birch with arthritic limbs which made a delightful study.

Just beyond I collected some umbrella-caps from an old log now resting on the ground. This reminded me of the verse "Under the toadstool crept the wee elf." I didn't find one but there were little teeth marks where the "dormouse" had been.

I drifted on through the music and motion of colossal spruces waving and chanting.

Delicious sunshine lit the tops of the pines as I moved from place to place often halting to gaze and listen at each fir, pine, spruce, or oak expressed itself in its own way.

Back on the pond I passed the place where Redwing had raised her young. The nest large and guilelessly exposed to view. Another masterpiece of nature as were several other varieties I saw; each with no harsh lines presented but rightly angular to fit its placing.

My two hours had swiftly passed. On my return the hardy nuthatches were holding a convention in the maple tree. They were threading the open furrows in their usual industrious way calling their noisy yank-yank, up, up, yank-yank with never a pause while the blue jays screamed as if they had lumps of hot curry in their throats.

Later I found the answer to the mysterious trail. It was described exactly as I had seen it. "The otter is more agile and graceful in water than on land, but sometimes travels far across country in search of fresh hunting grounds or a den beneath a riverbank. On level snow (where I saw the trail) he bounds, then slides as far as he can."

Although I knew they slid down banks I had never seen their trail on level ground so wondered about the long slide between tracks as if something was being dragged.

The Holts called on Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Chase, West Paris, and found them ill with the flu.

Mrs. Roland Hayes was in Portland last week to visit her sisters who were to leave for a two week vacation in Florida.

Doris Hayes and Colista Morgan met with other teachers at Doris Statterly's West Paris, for supper on Tuesday.

of grain. Now they are starting to get ready for spring by cleaning their nests and putting in dry leaves from wherever they can find them. Next the males will have to move out and the female will fix her bed for the young. Then she will get busy teaching them about their enemies as soon as they can look out the hole. She says one word which is most like our's and that is cat when she sees a cat in the yard and the young soon learn to hide in a tree or get up a tree if on the ground. It is unbelievable to watch them. One old male is very much boss. has several cuts on his ears from fights. So we gave him the name of "Old Grouch" as he is seven years old anyway. There is more that could be said but this is enough for one week as from now until after fall harvest they are busy.

Well this week has been a real busy time plenty of autos and on Saturday nine snowmobiles in one party and Sunday 14 as well as several single ones. They surely kept the dogs on their job as they barked a great deal and the snow must be getting well packed.

Dr. Harrell's Bronc has changed color. So you all will have to look hard to know him. He started for town early Monday morning and shortly behind was his old faithful hound, right in high gear also.
